CHRISTMAS WORSHIP
with Holy Communion
Christmas Eve
Sunday, December 24th
9:30am
3:00pm
5:00pm
10:00pm
Monday, Christmas Morning
9:30am

Many parents in our area can't afford Christmas presents, and you have a chance to make their holiday magical. Take an ornament from the PRISM Tree in the narthex, and bring a new, unwrapped gift no later than December 13th. Most needed items are for teens, and there are suggestions on the flyers by the tree and on the PRISM box. You can also purchase items online at www.tinyurl.com/prismwishlist17 and have them shipped direct to PRISM. Gift cards are also appreciated - drop them off in the office. Parents will "shop" at the toy distribution event on December 16th. Thanks very much.

Contribute to a Christmas Poinsettia…..
In honor or memory of a loved one. The cost is $12 per plant. You can find poinsettia envelopes with your offering envelopes or you can pick one up in the narthex. Please turn in your envelope by Sunday, December 17th by placing it in the red bag in the Narthex or leaving it on Linda’s desk. DO NOT place it in the offering plate. Thank you.

December is also offering pledge catch-up month. Keep in mind that the church financial records for 2017 close on Sunday, December 31, 2017.
From Pastor Ashley:
It’s that time again. Time to be making those Christmas “To-Do” lists. You know the ones. They tend to be very long and induce anxiety attacks simply by their existence. Here’s a sample, in case you don’t know what I’m talking about:

- Decorate the house
- Purchase a Christmas tree
- Hang lights outside
- Bake 30 kinds of cookies
- Shop for every single person you’ve ever met in your whole life. Ever.
- Wrap presents
- Re-wrap the presents your kid wrapped while “helping”
- Send out the Christmas card
- Bake 30 more kinds of cookies for good measure

Some tasks are easier than others, and some bring more joy than others. Baking cookies, for example, is always something I look forward to (because then I get to eat cookies). Sending out the Christmas card, on the other hand—this year in particular—is something I might delay until I’m so far past Christmas it isn’t worth sending out any longer.

It always feels like Christmas cards are our opportunity to tell the world how amazing our lives are. To detail all the incredible things we’ve done in the past year. To brag on the accomplishments of our family. The reality, however, is that 2017 has been a year of real highs and real lows. Our lives are amazing and complicated. We’ve done incredible things and have had some miserable fails. Our families have accomplished so much, and have been fighting non-stop. If we aren’t willing to address both—the good and the bad, the joyful and the sorrowful—we aren’t honoring the very incarnation that Christmas is all about.

Because when God decided to take on flesh and come and live among us—when God decided to become a human and dwell with us, as one of us—when God decided to see, taste, smell, and feel what it’s like to be human—God decided to enter the good and the bad. God decided to be present in the joyful and the sorrowful. This is the deep beauty of the incarnation: that God loves us so much, God would be willing to experience the best parts of being human and the most painful parts. That God would be willing to experience life in all its variety and death in all its agony. And all for us.

This is what we celebrate at Christmas: our God who loves us so much, God would willingly experience the best and endure the worst of humanity so that as we experience the best and endure the worst, we can trust God understands and is present with us. This is what we celebrate at Christmas: Immanuel, God with us. In the good and the bad, the joyful and the sorrowful. This is the power of the incarnation.

So as we enter this Advent season, as we prepare for Christmas, as we tackle those crazy “to-do” lists, know that God is with you. If this time is joyful and festive, God is with you. If this time is bittersweet or even melancholy, God is with you. God is with you in and through it all. This is the promise of Christmas!

Pastor Ashley

Campaign
- 3 year Budget $200,000.00
- Amount Pledged $169,336.24
- Funds YTD received $107,048.24

Still running a budget deficit of over $18,000. Report M/S/Approved.

OLD BUSINESS – Foundation for Mission – Campaign has $169,000 pledged and funds received to date is over $100,000. Fall winter congregational meeting has been scheduled for December 3rd. Annual reports need to be released to the congregation by November 12th. Building update. The roof is complete except for the steeple. Flooring update. A color has been chosen for new fellowship hall flooring; an order has been placed. The company needs five days to complete the project. Will be scheduled at most convenient time for church calendar. PASTORS REPORTS – Pastor Jason – nothing to report (intentionally due to length of budget discussion). Pastor Ashley – reminder that the Thanksgiving eve service will be at St. James Lutheran Church beginning at 7:00pm. 16 students have signed up for the ELCA National Youth Gathering next summer. November 19th chili feed and live auction is the first big fundraiser supporting that trip and camp.

BUDGET for 2018 – M/S/Approved a spending plan for 2018 in the amount of $480,707 that includes personnel changes and reduction of office hours to a total of 30 hours per week. This budget reflects a 4% budget cut from last year.

NEW BUSINESS – Emergency plan. Kirby Miller asked the council to reflect on the need for a policy in the event of an event similar to what recently happened in Texas. He requested that we discuss in a future meeting.

Closing Prayer – Pastor Ashley
Adjourn. M/S/Approved to adjourn at 9:38pm

Holy Nativity will celebrate its 60th Anniversary next Fall! Along with our celebration, we will have a re-dedication of the pipe organ that will have its 100th Anniversary. If you would like to be part of the celebration planning, please contact the office. Approximately 5-6 committee members are needed and we have 2 spots already filled. Help us plan a wonderful celebration for our church!

FYI-Reminder that even if you do not normally use giving envelopes, you will still receive Jan-June envelopes because the package contains the “special” giving envelopes, i.e. holidays, Lent, mission, etc. Feel free to toss the rest. Thanks for understanding.
CUSTODIAN’S CORNER by Tom Wiblishauser

MANY THANKS!

Thanks to all church members who help keep our church clean every day of the year. Whether it’s putting recyclable plastic or cans in the proper receptacle, straightening a fellowship chair, picking up a piece of paper off the floor or pew, removing trash or sweeping up a spill, all your individual efforts are greatly appreciated as well as helpful guidance on something that needs to be cleaned.

A special thanks to all who showed up and helped clean at our last Fall clean-up on Saturday, October 28th. They were Kirby Miller, Jerry Gaasland, Dean Birkholz, Delbert Haase, Connie Toavs, Jan Adamson and Word of Life member Nikolay Lechia and their second pastor Valeriy. Although it was too cold to wash outside windows, we did wash the inside windows, get the patio furniture stored, clean baseboards and sanctuary pews and cushions, and replace our entrance mats. A special thanks to Vern and Dorothy Erickson who spend every day helping keep Holy Nativity running smoothly as well.

Remember our recycle bin is not meant for old computers or monitors as well as pizza boxes (as the grease factor reclassifies them as trash and not accepted by our hauler).

BOOK LOOK!

A powerful novel of friendship set in a traveling circus during World War II, The Orphan’s Tale by Pam Jenoff, introduces two extraordinary women and their harrowing stories of sacrifice and survival. Sixteen-year-old Noa has been cast out in disgrace after becoming pregnant by a Nazi soldier and being forced to give up her baby. She lives above a small rail station, which she cleans in order to earn her keep. When Noa discovers a boxcar containing dozens of Jewish infants bound for a concentration camp, she is reminded of the child taken from her. And in a moment that will change the course of her life, she snatches one of the babies and flees into the snowy night.

Noa finds refuge with a German circus, but she must learn the flying trapeze act so she can blend in undetected, spurning the resentment of the lead aerialist, Astrid. At first rivals, Noa and Astrid soon forge a powerful bond. But as the facade that protects them proves increasingly tenuous, Noa and Astrid must decide whether their friendship is enough to save one another—or if the secrets that burn between them will destroy everything.

Join us for good conversation, delicious food, and a mid-winter pick-me-up. This year, our theme is “Finding Hope and Joy in a World of Despair and Sorrow.” We'll explore what the Bible says about hope and joy, learn about practices that can increase our happiness, and even experience some of them first-hand. There is so much going on in our lives and in our world—carve out a day to pause and reconnect with hope, joy, and each other. Look for a sign-up at the kiosk and more information to come!

Have you always wanted to sing with the Nativity Choir but you just don't have the time to commit to the whole year? Or, have you always wondered if singing with the Nativity Choir is something you would enjoy? Then why not consider joining us for a trial basis for Christmas Eve? Looking for singers of all voice parts to join the Nativity Choir on Christmas Eve. No auditions are required. The only requirements are that you can sing on Christmas Eve at the 3:00pm and 5:00pm services and that you attend Wednesday rehearsals starting November 29th and a Saturday rehearsal on December 16th. Wednesday Night Adult Education
Information for December & January
Take a little break during Advent and join us Wednesday, December 13th and 20th, from 6:00-7:00pm for “Advent Perspectives”, video and discussion. Nothing to read or prepare; just a time for you to come and catch your breath! Please sign-up on the sheet on the kiosk to let us know if you’ll be coming.

Looking ahead, we will again have a Wednesday Night Book Study, January 17th, 24th, and 31st.) Our book is “Stranger God; Meeting Jesus in Disguise”, by Richard Beck. Author Sarah Bessey writes, “…it’s all well and good to say that Christians will be known by our love; it’s something entirely different to actually love people who you find offensive or wrong or even just different. Through this wise and warm exploration of the Little Way, you will be discipled into the sweet ways of Jesus, whose love transforms everything—even us.”

We will be ordering copies of the book to arrive before Christmas (and after!). Book cost is $14.00, or you may purchase it on your own. The sign-up sheet, as well as a more detailed description of the book, will be posted on the kiosk.

If you have questions, please see Pastor Jason or Kari Johnson.

Spreading Joy & Changing Lives
“The heart of the giver makes the gift dear and precious” – Martin Luther
During this season of giving, please consider the Holy Nativity Endowment Fund for gifts. A percentage of the fund value is used each year to pay for items that enrich our lives at Holy Nativity and are separate from the annual budget. This year the Endowment Fund was able to contribute approximately $5,000 towards items around the church. Endowment memorials and tributes recognize someone special, mark special occasions, and remember a loved one. We give from our abundance and our thankfulness for God’s goodness. (Be sure to note “Endowment Fund” on your check.)

A huge thank you to all who attended, decorated, volunteered, and donated items at this year’s Halloween Family Event & Trunk or Treat! Though it was inside this year due to weather, it was a fun event. We also welcomed many members of the community! A special thank you to Kirby Miller for all his help beforehand, including building some of the games (including Plinko!), and to the youth who helped with prep, running the games and cleaning up afterwards. Thank you also to the Holy Nativity Christian Child Care Center - it was great seeing many HNCCCCC families there!

Just wanted to let you know that we delivered 10 Thanksgiving food baskets to deserving Meadow Lake families. Many thanks to Allysa for her help and also that of the Meadow Lake staff. They were phenomenal. But the greatest part was the families! It was a pure pleasure to meet all of them. I know they all really appreciated the baskets. I am so glad we did this. ~ Outreach Committee

A big THANK YOU to all who participated in the Live Auction here at Holy Nativity! Final numbers aren’t quite in yet, but we raised over $5000! It was a fun event with a lot of fun and good food and generous bidding. The money goes a long way to helping send our youth on their summer trips.

WELCA would like to thank all who helped work at the bake sale and all who donated those delicious treats! Thanks to your efforts, we raised approximately $2000. Just as an FYI, here is a breakdown on the distribution of the bake sale funds:
~ Cover any additional costs of Sunday pastries (over and above free-will donations)
~ Food for Tree House meals
~ Aprons and monograms on aprons (used for all events)
~ Kitchen supplies
~ Habitat for Humanity
~ Equipment and supplies for bake sale
~ Youth T-shirts for VBS (if needed)
~ Gifts to staff at Christmas
~ Ladies Salad Supper (entertainment, decorations and prizes)
~ Donations to Men’s Group for all their help with the bake sale, funerals, and any special events the WELCA needs help with.

Due to some unexpected events, our Advent Craft Event and movie had to be cancelled. Watch for it next year!!!

In the November council meeting, our congregational council was tasked with reducing our spending plan for 2017-2018 by a significant amount. Due to this need to align our budget with our income, the decision was made to reduce our office hours and have just one person staff the office. This was not an easy choice for us to make, but after long and careful deliberation, it was decided to eliminate the Coordinator of Parish Life position, held by Linda Lien.

Linda’s last day in the office will be December 21, as she has a previously scheduled family vacation the end of December. We so value the years of service Linda has provided to this congregation, and the care she has given so many of us. Please take time to thank her, and be on the lookout for ways we will celebrate all that she has done and all that she is!
